

Book Report: November

Book Award: Due: Friday, November 17, 2017

Materials: Book Award Organizer, construction paper, pencils, scissors, glue

Procedure:

1. First choose a novel that is at least over 150 pages long.
2. Then receive approval from Ms. Dunne.
3. Some books are better than others, but you could say something good about every book in the library.
4. For this report you are going to make an award to the book you read.
5. Use the Book Award Organizer to help you plan your award.
6. First take a half sheet of construction paper and draw the cover just the way you see. The book cover picture and the award should be bold and bright.
7. Start with light pencil lines and when you are satisfied, color them in.
8. Use the same construction paper to design an award for your book. Think about what kind of award you want to give your book. Here are some suggestions: Best Book, Great Information, Most Interesting Characters, Best by this author.
9. On top of the construction paper make sure to write your name, title of book, and author of the book.

Rubric:

10 points-all directions followed

10 points- your name

10 points-title of book

10 points- author of the book

20 points- the cover of the book is well designed

40 points- Award- very creative, neatly done, took your time07